Everyone is Irish on St. Patrick's Day, or so we've heard it said.
That's why we're all wearing green instead of blue or red!
If you believe in a leprechaun, then there's magic in your heart,
And with 2 sparkly shamrocks on display, our party gets its start.

A green garland and yellow streamer are part of the décor,
Along with 2 party hats, a vase of yellow roses, and so much more.
A gold foil centerpiece, 8 gold coins, and 8 candies wrapped in gold
Are on every table with 2 mugs, Mountain Dew, and wine nice and cold.

In a green basket is a tin of Altoids, Scotch tape, and a can of spray paint,
Along with Lifesavers for emergencies because unprepared we ain't.
With 3 bottles of bubbles to blow and a noisemaker so loud ears are ringing,
The party is in full swing with people dancing Irish jigs and loudly singing.

The party planner, our hero, was awarded with a trophy and golden crown,
But instead of being happy, she received them with a frown.
"I'm glad you liked the party, but if the truth were told," she said,
"It's way past my bedtime, and I'd much rather be in bed."
