

Jeopardy Trivia

We have chosen six categories with six questions in each category. The categories are: Remembering Motown; Bulb, Corm & Rhizome Gardens; On the Road Again; Types of Food; 1950s Pop Culture; and Jazzy July.

Choose from one of the following activities:

- Print a copy of the Jeopardy questions and answers. Play as a group or in teams. The “host” reads the clue, and the group/team tries to come up with the question/answer. Keep score and award points. Print pictures to hand out as visual clues for some of the trivia questions.
- Set up a Jeopardy board. Draw a grid. Write the six categories across the top of a whiteboard or flip chart, and write the dollar amounts below each category. Play as a group, in teams, or with three contestants, as on the TV show. Keep score and award points. Mark off each amount after it is awarded. The first person/team to answer correctly gets to select the next category and amount. Choose a Daily Double question in advance and award double points for the correct answer. Players can wager any amount of their winnings during the Final Jeopardy round. Alternate answers appear in parentheses after the primary answer.
- Print fill-in-the-blank copies of just the clues to hand out for independent activities. Also available are the clues with the answers.

---

Trivia Questions and Answers

Remembering Motown

1. ($100) “Stop in the Name of Love,” “You Can’t Hurry Love,” and “My World Is Empty Without You” are all songs performed by this all-female group of singers.

Answer: Who are the Supremes? In 1967, the group was renamed Diana Ross and the Supremes and kept the name until Ross left to pursue a solo career in 1970.

2. ($200) Early hits from this blind singer include “For Once in My Life,” “Reach Out, I’ll Be There,” and “My Cherie Amour.”

Answer: Who is Stevie Wonder? In the early days, he was billed as Little Stevie Wonder.

3. ($400) “My Girl,” “The Way You Do the Things You Do,” and “Ain’t Too Proud to Beg” are performed by this foursome.

Answer: Who are the Temptations? The Primes and the Distant, two Detroit bands, merged together to form the Temptations in 1961.

4. ($600) “Bernadette,” “It’s the Same Old Song,” and “Standing in the Shadows of Love” are three of this band’s hit tunes.

Answer: Who are the Four Tops? The original Four Tops performed from 1953 through 1997. The band performing today isn’t a tribute band; it’s made up of replacement artists.

5. ($800) This man performs “I Heard It Through the Grapevine,” “Too Busy Thinking About My Baby,” and “How Sweet It Is to Be Loved by You.”

Answer: Who is Marvin Gaye? Sometimes the billing includes Tammi Terrell.

6. ($1,000) This female artist performs “My Guy,” “The One Who Really Loves You,” and “Two Lovers.”

Answer: Who is Mary Wells? Wells performed with many of Motown’s artists without receiving billing.

Bulb, Corm & Rhizome Gardens

7. ($100) These purple, white, yellow, and variegated flowers are among the first to bloom in spring.

Answer: What are crocuses? They are grown from corms, which are smaller and rounder than bulbs and layered like an onion. To everyone but horticulturists, crocuses are grown from bulbs.

8. ($200) From the poem “I Wandered Lonely as a Cloud,” a “host” of these flowers are grown from bulbs.

Answer: What are golden daffodils? These large flowers with a central trumpet emerge in early spring.

9. ($400) This Christmas favorite is grown from a giant bulb.

Answer: What is amaryllis? The amaryllis plant can live up to 75 years with proper care.

10. ($600) This tall, spring-blooming flower is named for a Greek goddess and is available in a huge array of colors. Its varieties include bearded, dwarf, and Dutch.

Answer: What is iris? It’s grown from a rhizome. Each bloom has three upright petals and three downward-facing petals.

11. ($800) This roselike spring flower is grown from a bulb.

Answer: What is ranunculus? They are also called buttercups, but they bear no resemblance to daffodils. Pick a bunch of them, and they look just like a bouquet of roses.

12. ($1,000) These spring flowers are known for their bell-shaped, drooping blooms, often with a checkered, “tweed-like” pattern.

Answer: What is fritillaria? Its name comes from the Latin fritillus, meaning “dice box” or “dice shaker.” The exotic flowers originated in Europe and come in fascinating varieties, including variegated patterns.

On the Road Again

13. ($100) This suspension bridge spans the Golden Gate Strait and connects San Francisco to Marin County.

Answer: What is the Golden Gate Bridge? It was built in 1937 and is one of the “Seven Wonders of the Modern World.” It was one of the greatest engineering feats of its day.

14. ($200) This New England city is the home of Faneuil Hall Marketplace, where early freedom fighters gathered.

Answer: What is Boston? The Founding Fathers called it the “Cradle of Liberty.” Today, it’s a Top 10 visitor destination, a bustling marketplace with shops, locally grown produce, eateries, and street performances.

15. ($400) New Orleans is famous for these paranormal tours.

Answer: What are ghost tours? The bus and walking tours feature ghost, vampire, witch, and voodoo haunts.

16. ($600) Robert Mondavi transformed this valley into wine country.

Answer: What is Napa? Cesare Mondavi entered the wine industry in the 1920s. His son Robert studied chemistry, an essential part of winemaking, and, along with his family, bought his first winery, a 160-acre vineyard. The cost was $87,000. Visitors can tour the flagship property to see how the company produces its wines.

17. ($800) This original farmers’ market in the Public Market Center is synonymous with Seattle.

Answer: What is Pike Place Market? It was founded in 1907. According to its website, it’s “one of the oldest and largest continuously operating public markets in the United States.” It’s a large part of the Public Market Center, so be prepared to spend at least a few hours there.

18. ($1,000) Consistently the most-visited U.S. National Park, it hosted 11.5 million visitors in 2025.

Answer: What is Great Smoky Mountains National Park? It’s located in Tennessee and North Carolina. Because of its elevation, it sometimes offers skiing in winter, which isn’t common in the South. Kuwohi, formerly known as Clingmans Dome, is a tower at the park’s highest elevation and a year-round attraction.

Types of Food

19. ($100) Ribeye and skirt

Answer: What are steak cuts (or beef cuts)? Ribeyes are tender, marbled cuts, best pan-fried or grilled over dry heat, while skirt steaks are a tougher cut, best marinated in an acidic sauce and then flash-seared.

20. ($200) Granny Smith and pink lady

Answer: What are apples? Granny Smith apples are eaten raw and often used for baking. Pink lady apples are crisp and tart with a hint of sweetness.

21. ($400) Tagliatelle and vermicelli

Answer: What is pasta? Tagliatelle comes from Northern Italy and dates to the 15th century. Vermicelli is used in soups and in seafood dishes.

22. ($600) The type of vegetable broccoli, cauliflower, and Brussels sprouts are

Answer: What is cruciferous? Cruciferous comes from a Latin word meaning “cross-bearing”; the vegetables are so named because their four-petaled flowers resemble a cross. Other, less-obvious cruciferous vegetables include horseradish, radish, kale, and watercress.

23. ($800) Spring and egg

Answer: What are rolls? Spring rolls are thin pancake wraps from China, filled with vegetables and sometimes meat. Egg rolls are a similar, wider-Asian take on spring rolls, but they’re fried and crunchy.

24. ($1,000) Elephant and black

Answer: What is garlic? Elephant garlic has a milder flavor than the smaller varieties, and it is not a “true” garlic; it’s a member of the leek family. Black garlic is aged garlic with a higher nutrient concentration than common garlic.

1950s Pop Culture

25. ($100) With the television becoming more common, the airwaves were filled with entertainment, news, and these segments, which paid for free programming.

Answer: What are commercials? This was the decade that launched jingles and slogans into the stratosphere. Companies enticed buyers with must-have products through TV commercials. The era of “keeping up with the Joneses” was born.

26. ($200) City dwellers fled to housing developments in these areas.

Answer: What are suburbs? It was the ideal place to raise children, and life in the suburbs became more family-centric than in the cities.

27. ($400) After World War II, scarcity shifted to this trend.

Answer: What is prosperity? The average person could buy a house and a car in the booming economy.

28. ($600) During the 1950s “Golden Age of Television,” this iconic sitcom centered on two couples living in New York City: a bandleader and his mischievous wife, and their landlords.

Answer: What is I Love Lucy? The series originally ran from 1951 to 1957, and it still runs in syndication today. Toward the end of its run, Lucy and Ricky had a child and moved to the suburbs, and Fred and Ethel Mertz stayed in New York but visited the Ricardos.

29. ($800) Drab World War II styles evolved into color and pattern, and women’s dresses returned to this type of waist, popular during the late 19th century.

Answer: What is cinched (or fitted, or similar)? Polka dots were everywhere, a flourish not seen during the war years.

30. ($1,000) Even wealthy men shifted toward this generic type of clothing when not at work.

Answer: What is casual? While many wore sweaters under their jackets, younger men preferred white T-shirts, popularized by 1951’s A Streetcar Named Desire.

Jazzy July

31. ($100) Many people wear these three colors to celebrate the Fourth of July.

Answer: What are red, white, and blue? They are the colors of the U.S. flag. Many people fly the flag on this day.

32. ($200) Eat some funnel cake and take the grandkids to ride some rides at these state and county events, if one starts in July near you.

Answer: What is a fair? The focus of state and county fairs is livestock, horticultural, and craft competitions, but entertainment features draw the crowds. Fairs typically run from May through October.

33. ($400) On July 6, 1885, Louis Pasteur experimented on a nine-year-old boy who had been bitten by a dog by injecting him with this vaccine.

Answer: What is rabies? The dog was rabid, and the vaccine was unproven; fortunately, it worked, and Pasteur saved the child’s life. It was a gamble worth taking.

34. ($600) When it’s too hot to play a full round of golf—or even a nine-hole round of golf—try this quick, alliterative golf game.

Answer: What is putt-putt? The game consists only of putting, but many courses are both imaginative and challenging.

35. ($800) If you want to travel to a Greek island and don’t mind crowds, this island is renowned for its sunsets.

Answer: What is Santorini? If crowds don’t interest you, you can still catch exquisite sunsets during the shoulder seasons—March and April as well as October through early November.

36. ($1,000) On July 5, 1946, showgirl Micheline Bernardini introduced this garment to the world in Paris.

Answer: What is the bikini? Two-piece swimsuits were already worn, but this was the first unveiling of a bikini.

Final Jeopardy

A shark has this number of bones.

Answer: What is zero? Instead of bones, sharks have cartilage, which forms their spinal columns and jaws—the same material that forms our noses and outer ears.

---

The Supremes

Marvin Gaye

Ranunculus

Golden Gate Bridge

Pike Place Market

Tagliatelle and Vermicelli Pasta

Suburbs

Putt-Putt

Jeopardy Trivia

(Questions Only)

Remembering Motown

1. ($100) "Stop in the Name of Love," "You Can't Hurry Love," and "My World Is Empty Without You" are all songs performed by this all-female group of singers.

Answer: _____

2. ($200) Early hits from this blind singer include "For Once in My Life," "Reach Out, I'll Be There," and "My Cherie Amour."

Answer: _____

3. ($400) "My Girl," "The Way You Do the Things You Do," and "Ain't Too Proud to Beg" are performed by this foursome.

Answer: _____

4. ($600) "Bernadette," "It's the Same Old Song," and "Standing in the Shadows of Love" are three of this band's hit tunes.

Answer: _____

5. ($800) This man performs "I Heard It Through the Grapevine," "Too Busy Thinking About My Baby," and "How Sweet It Is to Be Loved by You."

Answer: _____

6. ($1,000) This female artist performs "My Guy," "The One Who Really Loves You," and "Two Lovers."

Answer: _____

Bulb, Corm & Rhizome Gardens

7. ($100) These purple, white, yellow, and variegated flowers are among the first to bloom in spring.

Answer: _____

8. ($200) From the poem "I Wandered Lonely as a Cloud," a "host" of these flowers are grown from bulbs.

Answer: _____

9. ($400) This Christmas favorite is grown from a giant bulb.

Answer: _____

10. ($600) This tall, spring-blooming flower is named for a Greek goddess and is available in a huge array of colors. Its varieties include bearded, dwarf, and Dutch.

Answer: _____

11. ($800) This roselike spring flower is grown from a bulb.

Answer: _____

12. ($1,000) These spring flowers are known for their bell-shaped, drooping blooms, often with a checkered, "tweed-like" pattern.

Answer: _____

On the Road Again

13. ($100) This suspension bridge spans the Golden Gate Strait and connects San Francisco to Marin County.

Answer: _____

14. ($200) This New England city is the home of Faneuil Hall Marketplace, where early freedom fighters gathered.

Answer: _____

15. ($400) New Orleans is famous for these paranormal tours.

Answer: _____

16. ($600) Robert Mondavi transformed this valley into wine country.

Answer: _____

17. ($800) This original farmers' market in the Public Market Center is synonymous with Seattle.

Answer: _____

18. ($1,000) Consistently the most-visited U.S. National Park, it hosted 11.5 million visitors in 2025.

Answer: _____

Types of Food

19. ($100) Ribeye and skirt

Answer: _____

20. ($200) Granny Smith and pink lady

Answer: _____

21. ($400) Tagliatelle and vermicelli

Answer: _____

22. ($600) The type of vegetable broccoli, cauliflower, and Brussels sprouts are

Answer: _____

23. ($800) Spring and egg

Answer: _____

24. ($1,000) Elephant and black

Answer: _____

1950s Pop Culture

25. ($100) With the television becoming more common, the airwaves were filled with entertainment, news, and these segments, which paid for free programming.

Answer: _____

26. ($200) City dwellers fled to housing developments in these areas.

Answer: _____

27. ($400) After World War II, scarcity shifted to this trend.

Answer: _____

28. ($600) During the 1950s "Golden Age of Television," this iconic sitcom centered on two couples living in New York City: a bandleader and his mischievous wife, and their landlords.

Answer: _____

29. ($800) Drab World War II styles evolved into color and pattern, and women's dresses returned to this type of waist, popular during the late 19th century.

Answer: _____

30. ($1,000) Even wealthy men shifted toward this generic type of clothing when not at work.

Answer: _____

Jazzy July

31. ($100) Many people wear these three colors to celebrate the Fourth of July.

Answer: _____

32. ($200) Eat some funnel cake and take the grandkids to ride some rides at these state and county events, if one starts in July near you.

Answer: _____

33. ($400) On July 6, 1885, Louis Pasteur experimented on a nine-year-old boy who had been bitten by a dog by injecting him with this vaccine.

Answer: _____

34. ($600) When it's too hot to play a full round of golf—or even a nine-hole round of golf—try this quick, alliterative golf game.

Answer: _____

35. ($800) If you want to travel to a Greek island and don't mind crowds, this island is renowned for its sunsets.

Answer: _____

36. ($1,000) On July 5, 1946, showgirl Micheline Bernardini introduced this garment to the world in Paris.

Answer: _____

Final Jeopardy

A shark has this number of bones.

Answer: _____

Jeopardy Trivia

(Questions with Answers)

Remembering Motown

1. ($100) "Stop in the Name of Love," "You Can't Hurry Love," and "My World Is Empty Without You" are all songs performed by this all-female group of singers.

Answer: Who are the Supremes? In 1967, the group was renamed Diana Ross and the Supremes and kept the name until Ross left to pursue a solo career in 1970.

2. ($200) Early hits from this blind singer include "For Once in My Life," "Reach Out, I'll Be There," and "My Cherie Amour."

Answer: Who is Stevie Wonder? In the early days, he was billed as Little Stevie Wonder.

3. ($400) "My Girl," "The Way You Do the Things You Do," and "Ain't Too Proud to Beg" are performed by this foursome.

Answer: Who are the Temptations? The Primes and the Distant, two Detroit bands, merged together to form the Temptations in 1961.

4. ($600) "Bernadette," "It's the Same Old Song," and "Standing in the Shadows of Love" are three of this band's hit tunes.

Answer: Who are the Four Tops? The original Four Tops performed from 1953 through 1997. The band performing today isn't a tribute band; it's made up of replacement artists.

5. ($800) This man performs "I Heard It Through the Grapevine," "Too Busy Thinking About My Baby," and "How Sweet It Is to Be Loved by You."

Answer: Who is Marvin Gaye? Sometimes the billing includes Tammi Terrell.

6. ($1,000) This female artist performs "My Guy," "The One Who Really Loves You," and "Two Lovers."

Answer: Who is Mary Wells? Wells performed with many of Motown's artists without receiving billing.

Bulb, Corm & Rhizome Gardens

7. ($100) These purple, white, yellow, and variegated flowers are among the first to bloom in spring.

Answer: What are crocuses? They are grown from corms, which are smaller and rounder than bulbs and layered like an onion. To everyone but horticulturists, crocuses are grown from bulbs.

8. ($200) From the poem "I Wandered Lonely as a Cloud," a "host" of these flowers are grown from bulbs.

Answer: What are golden daffodils? These large flowers with a central trumpet emerge in early spring.

9. ($400) This Christmas favorite is grown from a giant bulb.

Answer: What is amaryllis? The amaryllis plant can live up to 75 years with proper care.

10. ($600) This tall, spring-blooming flower is named for a Greek goddess and is available in a huge array of colors. Its varieties include bearded, dwarf, and Dutch.

Answer: What is iris? It's grown from a rhizome. Each bloom has three upright petals and three downward-facing petals.

11. ($800) This roselike spring flower is grown from a bulb.

Answer: What is ranunculus? They are also called buttercups, but they bear no resemblance to daffodils. Pick a bunch of them, and they look just like a bouquet of roses.

12. ($1,000) These spring flowers are known for their bell-shaped, drooping blooms, often with a checkered, "tweed-like" pattern.

Answer: What is fritillaria? Its name comes from the Latin fritillus, meaning "dice box" or "dice shaker." The exotic flowers originated in Europe and come in fascinating varieties, including variegated patterns.

On the Road Again

13. ($100) This suspension bridge spans the Golden Gate Strait and connects San Francisco to Marin County.

Answer: What is the Golden Gate Bridge? It was built in 1937 and is one of the "Seven Wonders of the Modern World." It was one of the greatest engineering feats of its day.

14. ($200) This New England city is the home of Faneuil Hall Marketplace, where early freedom fighters gathered.

Answer: What is Boston? The Founding Fathers called it the "Cradle of Liberty." Today, it's a Top 10 visitor destination, a bustling marketplace with shops, locally grown produce, eateries, and street performances.

15. ($400) New Orleans is famous for these paranormal tours.

Answer: What are ghost tours? The bus and walking tours feature ghost, vampire, witch, and voodoo haunts.

16. ($600) Robert Mondavi transformed this valley into wine country.

Answer: What is Napa? Cesare Mondavi entered the wine industry in the 1920s. His son Robert studied chemistry, an essential part of winemaking, and, along with his family, bought his first winery, a 160-acre vineyard. The cost was $87,000. Visitors can tour the flagship property to see how the company produces its wines.

17. ($800) This original farmers' market in the Public Market Center is synonymous with Seattle.

Answer: What is Pike Place Market? It was founded in 1907. According to its website, it's "one of the oldest and largest continuously operating public markets in the United States." It's a large part of the Public Market Center, so be prepared to spend at least a few hours there.

18. ($1,000) Consistently the most-visited U.S. National Park, it hosted 11.5 million visitors in 2025.

Answer: What is Great Smoky Mountains National Park? It's located in Tennessee and North Carolina. Because of its elevation, it sometimes offers skiing in winter, which isn't common in the South. Kuwohi, formerly known as Clingmans Dome, is a tower at the park's highest elevation and a year-round attraction.

Types of Food

19. ($100) Ribeye and skirt

Answer: What are steak cuts (or beef cuts)? Ribeyes are tender, marbled cuts, best pan-fried or grilled over dry heat, while skirt steaks are a tougher cut, best marinated in an acidic sauce and then flash-seared.

20. ($200) Granny Smith and pink lady

Answer: What are apples? Granny Smith apples are eaten raw and often used for baking. Pink lady apples are crisp and tart with a hint of sweetness.

21. ($400) Tagliatelle and vermicelli

Answer: What is pasta? Tagliatelle comes from Northern Italy and dates to the 15th century. Vermicelli is used in soups and in seafood dishes.

22. ($600) The type of vegetable broccoli, cauliflower, and Brussels sprouts are

Answer: What is cruciferous? Cruciferous comes from a Latin word meaning "cross-bearing"; the vegetables are so named because their four-petaled flowers resemble a cross. Other, less-obvious cruciferous vegetables include horseradish, radish, kale, and watercress.

23. ($800) Spring and egg

Answer: What are rolls? Spring rolls are thin pancake wraps from China, filled with vegetables and sometimes meat. Egg rolls are a similar, wider-Asian take on spring rolls, but they're fried and crunchy.

24. ($1,000) Elephant and black

Answer: What is garlic? Elephant garlic has a milder flavor than the smaller varieties, and it is not a "true" garlic; it's a member of the leek family. Black garlic is aged garlic with a higher nutrient concentration than common garlic.

1950s Pop Culture

25. ($100) With the television becoming more common, the airwaves were filled with entertainment, news, and these segments, which paid for free programming.

Answer: What are commercials? This was the decade that launched jingles and slogans into the stratosphere. Companies enticed buyers with must-have products through TV commercials. The era of “keeping up with the Joneses” was born.

26. ($200) City dwellers fled to housing developments in these areas.

Answer: What are suburbs? It was the ideal place to raise children, and life in the suburbs became more family-centric than in the cities.

27. ($400) After World War II, scarcity shifted to this trend.

Answer: What is prosperity? The average person could buy a house and a car in the booming economy.

28. ($600) During the 1950s “Golden Age of Television,” this iconic sitcom centered on two couples living in New York City: a bandleader and his mischievous wife, and their landlords.

Answer: What is I Love Lucy? The series originally ran from 1951 to 1957, and it still runs in syndication today. Toward the end of its run, Lucy and Ricky had a child and moved to the suburbs, and Fred and Ethel Mertz stayed in New York but visited the Ricardos.

29. ($800) Drab World War II styles evolved into color and pattern, and women’s dresses returned to this type of waist, popular during the late 19th century.

Answer: What is cinched (or fitted, or similar)? Polka dots were everywhere, a flourish not seen during the war years.

30. ($1,000) Even wealthy men shifted toward this generic type of clothing when not at work.

Answer: What is casual? While many wore sweaters under their jackets, younger men preferred white T-shirts, popularized by 1951’s A Streetcar Named Desire.

Jazzy July

31. ($100) Many people wear these three colors to celebrate the Fourth of July.

Answer: What are red, white, and blue? They are the colors of the U.S. flag. Many people fly the flag on this day.

32. ($200) Eat some funnel cake and take the grandkids to ride some rides at these state and county events, if one starts in July near you.

Answer: What is a fair? The focus of state and county fairs is livestock, horticultural, and craft competitions, but entertainment features draw the crowds. Fairs typically run from May through October.

33. ($400) On July 6, 1885, Louis Pasteur experimented on a nine-year-old boy who had been bitten by a dog by injecting him with this vaccine.

Answer: What is rabies? The dog was rabid, and the vaccine was unproven; fortunately, it worked, and Pasteur saved the child's life. It was a gamble worth taking.

34. ($600) When it's too hot to play a full round of golf—or even a nine-hole round of golf—try this quick, alliterative golf game.

Answer: What is putt-putt? The game consists only of putting, but many courses are both imaginative and challenging.

35. ($800) If you want to travel to a Greek island and don't mind crowds, this island is renowned for its sunsets.

Answer: What is Santorini? If crowds don't interest you, you can still catch exquisite sunsets during the shoulder seasons—March and April as well as October through early November.

36. ($1,000) On July 5, 1946, showgirl Micheline Bernardini introduced this garment to the world in Paris.

Answer: What is the bikini? Two-piece swimsuits were already worn, but this was the first unveiling of a bikini.

Final Jeopardy

A shark has this number of bones.

Answer: What is zero? Instead of bones, sharks have cartilage, which forms their spinal columns and jaws—the same material that forms our noses and outer ears.

---